

BRACKLEY TOWN COUNCIL

Lettings Policy

BLANK

1. Brackley Town Council will aim to maximise effective use of the Old Fire Station Community Room, Brackley Town Hall and Egerton Hall
 - a. The buildings will be promoted for use by groups, individuals and commercial use.
 - b. The Town Council see the buildings as community assets for use by the community
 - c. Income from lettings is significant and therefore should be maximised
 - d. Effective use does not equate to full usage; there always needs to be room for logistics and effective management by BTC resources.
2. Brackley Town Council will encourage use of the buildings which enhance the community use of our town
 - a. Priority will generally be given to local groups who are attracting local people to events or clubs
3. Brackley Town Council will encourage the use of the Town Hall and Egerton Hall for performances, weddings, conferences and large events:
 - a. The Town Council has equipped these buildings to a high standard and would like to see the facilities used as much as possible.
 - b. Our bookings system and lettings policy should allow the organisers certainty on their bookings,
4. Brackley Town Council will encourage regular use of the Buildings
 - a. Regular use by groups for education, sessions and regular meetings is encouraged.
 - b. It is understood that such users will also require certainty of their bookings and so prior notice of any interruptions to their regular bookings will be given in plenty of time.
5. Brackley Town Council will make arrangements and allowances for Town Council Meetings, Civic and National Events
 - a. Bookings for Town Council meetings will take precedent over other bookings
 - b. Civic and Community events organised by Brackley Town Council will take precedent over other bookings, although care will be taken to book venues with in advance to minimise disruption.
 - c. National Events may mean that existing bookings will be cancelled, postponed or moved.

Bookings are classified into 3 categories:

1. Block Bookings
 - a. These are events or bookings that may result in disruption to regular users.
 - b. They are to be made at least 3 months in advance where possible to allow for the disruption to other hirers to be minimised.
 - c. Bookings in this category will be as minimal as is reasonable to limit disruption to other hirers while encouraging this type of use of our venues.
 - d. These bookings are limited to a maximum of 10 consecutive days

- e. It is requested that those making block bookings make efforts to accommodate regular bookings as much as possible (for example, allowing access during the day when the hall is not in use for a performance)

2. Regular Bookings

- a. Hirers that reserve a space on a set time and date once a month or more
- b. A regular class or booking may be moved or cancelled to accommodate a block booking. As much notice of disruption as possible will be given and where possible, alternative BTC venues will be offered.

3. Occasional Bookings

- a. These are hires that are one-offs or ad-hoc bookings that are booked individually.
- b. These can be made at any time taking into account of other bookings.

Prices for the venues are classified into 3 rates:

1. Commercial Rate

- a. This rate is for
 - i. businesses that are not based in Brackley.
 - ii. individuals who do not live in Brackley.

2. Local rate

- a. This rate is for
 - i. any individual who lives in Brackley
