REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY – SUNDAY 11th NOVEMBER 2018

On Sunday 11th November 2018, the United Kingdom and its friends overseas will mark the day 100 years ago when the guns fell silent at the end of the First World War.

Brackley will play its part in remembering the sacrifice of millions of men and women by joining a unique series of events throughout the day involving organisations and communities throughout the length and breadth of the country and many countries overseas.

Brackley Town Council invites the local community to join in the following commemorations:

6.00am – At the town war memorial

A lone piper will play Battle's Over, Sleep in Peace

11.00am – At the town war memorial

Including 2 minutes' silence to mark Armistice Day

From 2.20pm – Remembrance Parade & Service

The Parade will commence at 2.30pm from Winchester House School, High Street

Followed by

The Annual Service of Remembrance in the town centre

6.55pm – Battle's Over, the Last Post

At Poppyfields Way park

7.00pm – Battle's Over, WWI Beacon of Light

At Poppyfields Way park

7.05pm – Battle's Over, Ringing out for Peace

Bell ringers at St. Peter's Church will ring a celebratory peal with a simultaneous recording played at Poppyfields Way park
