

PAST PRESENT PROGRESS

PAST PRESENT PROGRESS is a project all about highlighting issues we face today using voices from the past.

The project revolves around six uniquely designed posters that include quotes from wartime Mass Observation diaries. Although these quotes are historical they are still pertinent to society today.

This project aims to honour the past by making a statement that we, as a small town, are dedicated to learning from those that went before us by consciously doing all that we can to create a better future for everyone.

THIS IS A PROJECT FOR BRACKLEY AND WE WANT YOU TO TAKE PART!

HOW TO GET INVOLVED IN 3 EASY STEPS

1

DISPLAY YOUR POSTER PROUDLY IN A LOCATION OF YOUR CHOICE (FRIDGE, NOTICEBOARDS, FRONT WINDOWS... WHEREVER YOU LIKE!)

2

TAKE A PHOTO OF YOUR POSTER ON DISPLAY AND WRITE A QUOTE OF YOUR OWN OR AN OVERHEARD QUOTE ABOUT SOCIETY IN 2017

3

TWEET YOUR PHOTO AND QUOTE ALONG WITH YOUR NAME TO: @PASTPRESENTPROG OR EMAIL PASTPRESENTPROGRESS2017@GMAIL.COM

For more information visit pastpresentprogress.wordpress.com

A selection of the new quotes (possibly yours!) will be turned into posters, which will become part of a modern archive, to show future generations how Brackley thought and felt in 2017.

The deadline for quotes is Tuesday 23rd May.

These will be displayed at The Old Fire Station Community Room in Brackley on Saturday 27th May 2017 10.30am - 1pm.

We hope to see you there!
